

Volume from 2005 International Workshop:

Grammars in Contact: A Cross Linguistic Perspective
13 - 18 June 2005

Grammars in contact: a cross-linguistic typology, edited by Aikhenvald and Dixon, published in late 2006, by Oxford University Press, as the fourth volume in its series Explorations in Linguistic Typology, contains an Introduction by Aikhenvald, and the following chapters:

- on Australian languages, by R. M. W. Dixon
- on Western Nilotic languages, by Anne Storch
- on Likpe, by Felix K. Ameka
- on Basque, by Gerd Jendraschek
- on Tetun Dili, by John Hajek
- on Pennsylvania German, by Kate Burridge
- on the Balkan languages, by Victor A. Friedman
- on Cantonese, by Stephen Matthews
- on the Vaupés languages, by Alexandra Y. Aikhenvald
- on Tukano, by Patience Epps
- on Amuesha, by Willem F. H. Adelaar
- on Mawayana, by Eithe B. Carlin

Click here for group photo

